IS SHOT DOWN UNDER THE FLAG

United States Asks Immediate Reparation.

AMERICAN CITIZEN MURDERED

In Mexico—Punishment Of Murderers Promised By Gen. Salazar.

COAT-OF-ARMS DIDN'T PROTECT

Washington, March 12.—Encouraging advices telling of the relief of the food famine in Mexico City through the evacuation of the capital by the forces of Gen. Obregon, the Carranza commander, were belated today by the news that on the entry of the Zapata troops John B. McManus, an American citizen, was murdered—shot down in his home, the door of which had been sealed with the coat of arms of the United States, and over which flew the Stars and Stripes.

Instant demand was made by the Brazilian Minister, on behalf of the United States Government for the punishment of those guilty of the crime. After a conference between President Wilson and his Cabinet, Secretary Bryan telegraphed the Brazilian Minister approving of the action he had taken and adding a demand for reparation to the family of the victim. The Minister was instructed to insist on the early punishment of the offenders and to impress upon the post commander at Mexico City—Gen. Salazar—the seriousness with which the American Government viewed the occurrence.

The general—who is not the same Salazar nor a relative of the Independent chief who has been conducting an independent revolutionary movement in Northern Mexico after his escape from American custody last year—promised that the demands of the United States would be promptly met.

The Brazilian Minister reported at length in several dispatches on the murder. The motive for the crime, he explained, was undoubtedly one of revenge for the killing of two Zapata soldiers by McManus when their forces last left Mexico City. The Minister said that when the Zapata troops withdrew several weeks ago, after the departure of Gen. Uterrez, some of them attempted to loot the home of McManus. The latter stood on his doorstep and, though it was never definitely established who fired the first shot, when the attackers fled because of the arrival of Carranza forces, two were left behind dead.

Apprehensive of what might be his fate on the return of the Zapata forces, McManus induced the Brazilian Minister to seal his door with the coat of arms of the United States and hoisted an American flag over his home. Apparently, the Minister reported, McManus was killed by a simultaneous volley, for the shots were fired at a short distance and his hat was filled with bullet holes. Previously the American had taken precautions to send his wife and family to the home of friends, and no one, so far as is known, witnessed the shooting.

The killing of McManus, coming after the serious developments in the situation in Mexico City of the last week, increased apprehension here in official quarters for the safety of foreigners. During Obregon's occupation of the city a Swedish subject and four Spaniards were killed. Before leaving Mexico City Obregon gave the Brazilian Minister a certificate confirming the fact that the Swede was killed by his soldiers.

The certificate was given to afford the family of the latter a basis for a claim. The Carranza commander is understood to have expressed his regret over the occurrence and paid 1,000 pesos toward the funeral expenses of the victim.

Messages transmitted by the Brazilian Minister from the wife of the dead man were sent to two relatives—Eliza McManus, 4960 Perry ave., Chicago, and Charles B. Wood, Symes building, Denver, Col. They stated merely that the family was away when the shooting occurred.

Secretary Bryan made no comment on the affair beyond revealing what steps had been taken by the United States Government. The Brazilian Minister has instructions to see that punishment is inflicted on the offenders without delay. Beyond this and the arrangement for an indemnity to be paid the family, it was not believed the American Government would go for the present.

The incident was regarded by high officials as an isolated case arising out of personal difficulties between McManus and the Zapataists, and not due to any general antipathy toward foreigners or intended attack on them as a whole. Confidence prevailed that the Zapata troops would maintain good order.

EXPORTATIONS OF GOODS SHOW MARKED INCREASE

Washington, March 15.—Marked increases of exports of manufactures of nearly every description during the month of January were announced by the Department of Commerce. January exports were shown to be valued at $263,600,000, or $62,000,000 more than was exported in January, 1914.

Iron and steel products shipped abroad exceeded in value the total for January a year ago by about $1,500,000, exports of brass goods doubled in value, fruits and nuts increased by more than $1,000,000, leather and leather goods trebled, meat and dairy products increased about 30 per cent., cotton goods doubled, chemicals increased 50 per cent., automobiles rose from less than $1,000,000 to $2,500,000, india rubber goods nearly doubled, refined sugar, quadrupled, woolen goods rose from about $333,000 to $3,000,000, and spelter from less than $30,000 to $2,000,000.

The only important commercial products which failed to show increases over January, 1914, were raw cotton, lumber, naval stores, refined mineral oils, agricultural implements and copper manufactures.

Each group of manufactures made an advance over January of last year—prepared foodstuffs from $29,000,000 to $41,000,000; manufactures for use in manufacturing from $29,500,000 to $30,000,000, and manufactures ready for consumption from $52,000,000 to $64,000,000.

MR. COLYER ANNOUNCES FOR AUDITOR OF STATE

On the third page of The Herald to-day will be found the announcement of Mr. H. H. Colyer, of Richmond, Ky., as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Auditor of Public Accounts.

Mr. Colyer, who is a well and favorably known farmer and stock dealer of Madison county, is in every sense of the term a self-made man, who comes to the front with the solid endorsement of the Democratic committee of his county as well as the local papers.

He was successful in the only political contest he ever waged for himself when he succeeded in defeating Hon. C. C. Wallace, one of the most popular young Republicans in Madison county, for the office of Sheriff. This, too, when the county gave, normally, 400 Republican majority.

Mr. Colyer is thoroughly qualified for the position he seeks and requests you to take time to read his announcement and consider his claims.

McLEAN COUNTY DEAL IN POULTRY SPLENDID

People Beginning To Realize Excellent Benefit Of the A. S. Of E.

At Island Station on Wednesday the McLean County Union A. S. of E. completed the delivery of poultry in the late poultry deal as made by the American Society of Equity and representatives of a New York firm. Close to one thousand dollars worth of poultry was received. Tuesday of last week was poultry day at Livermore, where a fine delivery was made, and on Wednesday Island Station was the place for receiving poultry and a splendid lot of fowls were brought to that place for the Equity contract. At every receiving point perfect satisfaction seemed to prevail, and many who wanted to get the benefit of the good Equity price and were not members of the Society, came up and took membership and received the price for their poultry.

In all this poultry deal amounted to about two thousand dollars, and the price realized was about 25 per cent. above what the local market had been. Considering the short time the people had to get ready for market this deal was considered a splendid achievement, and too from the fact that this shipment was to go right on into New York City.

Another shipment will be made about April 1st, so with these good results as coming from organization, together with sales of live stock on the great markets without having to go through the commission merchants and other toll-gates, our farmers are at last realizing that there is a great deal more in the Equity Society besides to pool to bacco, especially when a load of old hens in the pool in one instance brought the seller over one hundred and fifty dollars.

WELL KNOWN DAVIES COUNTY FARMER DEAD

William M. (Bunk) Fuqua, one of the best known farmers of Davies county, died at his home west of Owensboro, at 12:45 o'clock Monday morning, following a sudden attack of congestion of the lungs. Mr. Fuqua had been in declining health for many months, but was very much improved and on Sunday was going about the house in his usual good spirits. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon he was seized with congestion of the lungs, which was finally the immediate cause of his death.

Mr. Fuqua was born in Davies county January 16, 1834, where he had lived all of his life. He was a successful farmer, and liked by everyone who knew him. He is survived by his wife and four children: Mrs. C. R. Kennedy, Mrs. Geo. H. Rudy, Miss Gray Fuqua and Frank Fuqua.

STATE COMMITTEE MAY HOLD A MEETING SOON

Democrats Considering Adviseability of State Convention to Frame Platform.

Louisville, Ky., March 15.—Democratic politics in Kentucky is approaching an interesting stage because of a movement to request the State Central and State Executive committees to hold a meeting in Louisville some time in the next two or three weeks to consider the advisability of holding a State Democratic convention to frame a party platform.

This matter has been in process of agitation for several months by those who wish a State convention before the party primary in August, but a distinct majority of the two committees has been opposed to such action. It is now claimed by some of the advocates of an early convention that members of the State Committee who had been opposed to an early convention are willing to hear arguments upon the subject and it is practically certain that a meeting of the committees will be called.

Mr. R. H. Vansant, of Ashland, Ky., is the chairman of the State committees and Mr. Vansant has been classed as among those who doubted the wisdom of an early convention. Mr. Vansant has, however, let it be known that he would call a meeting of the committee to consider the subject whenever any considerable number of the committeemen or of the candidates indicated a desire that this be done.

TIDE OF IMMIGRATION TURNS THE OTHER WAY

Washington, March 15.—For the first time in the history of the United States the flow of immigration has been turned back toward Europe by the war, and more aliens are leaving the United States than are coming here to make their homes.

Statistics made public here by Immigration Commissioner Caminetti show that the change came in December last, when the number of emigrant aliens leaving this country was greater by 2,240 than the total of immigrants entering. In January 1,757 more departed than entered. The departures for the six months from August, 1914, to January last totaled 18,545 more than the arrivals.

The heaviest emigration was shown among aliens from Southern Italy. Of these 75,629 more departed than were admitted during the seven months ended with January. This presumably was due to the calling of Italian reservists to the colors.

COPPER SHOWS SPEED IN DISROBING STUNT

Hellefontaine, O., March 15.—When a mouse ran up the trousers of Police Sergeant Polley, just after he had entered a provision store, the patrolman was the principal figure in a panic among the women patrons.

The presence of the mouse, gambling over the billowy form of the big policeman, inside his union suit, caused him to discard his club, gun, mace and handcuffs, and a part of his clothing, as he prepared to engage the intruder in a hand-to-hand encounter.

The women, frightened at the rapidity and extent of the Sergeant's disrobing act, were afraid to flee for fear the mouse might escape. They stood and screamed.

After chasing up and down the officer's back and circling his body, the mouse made an excursion down one of Polley's legs, and, becoming entangled in his garter, was caught in the iron grip of the perspiring officer and crushed to death.

SKULL OF HUMAN WAS FOUND IN BIG SHARK

Cleveland, O., March 13.—Relatives of John B. Mooney, of Mooney Bros. Company, who disappeared in the surf off St. Augustine, Fla., three years ago, began to-day to try to identify a skull found in a great shark as that of the Cleveland. The shark was caught at Miami, Fla., early this week, and its body contained a human skull and other bones.

A diagram of the teeth of the missing man was sent by Dr. J. P. Henahan to a firm of underlayers at Miami, with which Edgar J. Mooney has been in communication since his father's death.

Although a search of the Florida shore after Mooney's disappearance was kept up for months no trace of him has ever been found. A school of sharks was seen in the vicinity and relatives at the time feared Mooney had fallen a victim to one of these fish.

The shark caught a few days ago by Henry Sanford, a wealthy clubman of Richfield, Conn., wintering at Miami, was one of a catch of 10 made off Soldiers' Key, 14 miles below Miami, and was the largest of the lot, weighing more than 1,200 pounds. When the shark was cut open there was found in its stomach the skull of a man, the shoulder blade, thigh bone and upper arm bone.

Miami undertakers to whom the bones were turned over and physicians said the head tallied with descriptions of Mooney, Sr.

JAPS ARE SENDING BIG FORCE TROOPS TO CHINA

Peking, China, March 13.—The Chinese government has official information to the effect that the second Japanese squadron, conveying two divisions of approximately 30,000 soldiers, has sailed for China.

The forwarding of these troops will increase the number of Japanese soldiers in the garrisons in China to nearly 60,000. The new troops will be distributed in Manchuria, Shantung, Tien Tsin and Hankow, where the present forces at the Japanese garrisons number nearly 30,000.

"COLA" DU PONT SELLS INTEREST FOR $20,000,000

The Louisville Post says:

The recent report of the sale of the interests of T. Coleman duPont in the E. I. duPont-DeNemours Powder Company, better known as the Powder Trust, for $20,000,000, is of interest to Louisville people, and to some extent to the people of Kentucky, particularly those in the Western coal fields of the State.

Mr. duPont is a son of Biddeman duPont, long a resident of Louisville, and a brother of A. V. duPont, one of the originators of the street car system in Louisville. Two sisters, Mrs. Hannon Coleman and Mrs. H. F. Baldwin, make their home in Louisville at 1412 St. James Court.

The duPont family had long been prominent in Louisville, as a result of their operation of the duPont paper mill, and later because of their traction and coal mining interests in and around Central City, Ky. Biddeman duPont was practically the sole owner of the Central Coal and Iron Company at Central City until about a year ago, when it was merged with the Shelby Gish interests there.

Mrs. Baker lives on State street, Cincinnati, and is 17 years old. Mrs. Morton was married when 14 years old and her daughter was born a year later. The baby born to-day is a girl.

Policeman Morton, the grandfather of the child, is 39 years old, and his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Morton, who became a great-grandmother, is 55 years old.

ORDERED TO JAIL FOR HIS FAILURE

To Send Little Daughter To School.

SHE HADN'T BEEN VACCINATED

And Remained At Home Because Of the Illness Of Her Mother.

DONE IN NAME OF THE LAW

Just how the law of compulsory vaccination works when put to the test, is well illustrated by the following case told by the Owensboro Messenger of a man well known in Ohio county, as he formerly lived here. It is enough to almost make the blood of a righteous-minded person's blood boil. There is no criticism for the trial judge, for his sworn duty is to uphold the law. It is the law itself which appears in all its hideousness.

Here is the case of a man who had done nobody any harm—never did anybody any harm that we ever heard of, and we know him pretty well—being thrown into jail, simply for protecting his own family. But let the Messenger tell the pitiful little story, which is short, plain and to the point. The Messenger of Sunday says:

"J. A. Nelson, who resides in West Fifth street, was arraigned before County Judge Lancaster on Saturday afternoon on a warrant preferred against him by the truant officer. Nelson was charged with failing to send his fourteen-year-old daughter to the West Second-street school. Nelson informed the Court that the child had been refused admission to the school because she was not vaccinated as required. His reason for not complying with the law and allowing the child to attend school was that she was needed at home to perform the household duties usually discharged by his wife. The latter, he stated, was unable to discharge her duties temporarily because of illness, and he feared vaccination would affect the child so that she would become ill. Judge Lancaster imposed a fine of $10 and remanded the man to the county jail when he was unable to liquidate the fine."

Talk about "personal liberty" in this "land of the free and home of the brave," how does this strike you? What would YOU think if YOU were in Jim Nelson's place? Would YOU think there was any fairness in this law? Of course failure to send his little girl to school was the main charge and the one upon which he was imprisoned, but you will notice that failure to have the child vaccinated was at the bottom of it all. And why didn't he have her vaccinated? Because he had a sick wife at home who needed the ministrations of her little daughter while the husband and father was out at work, trying to provide and make a living for his family. Vaccination would in all likelihood make the child sick. He is a poor man and has to work for a living. And now this man who has wronged nobody and committed no offense save in the protection of his family, must suffer the disgrace of being thrust into jail, where he must lie in "durance vile" while his little family at home weep over his misfortune and suffer for the necessities of life.

Does this sound like the doings of an enlightened age? Doesn't it rather sound like a chapter taken from the remote past, when the old "blue laws" were in force and alleged witches were burned at the stake? But not so. It happened right here in Kentucky—in Owensboro, Davies county—and only last week.

Jim Nelson is just a poor man, holding no position of prominence in the world's affairs. He didn't even have money sufficient to pay his fine. But his liberty and his personal rights are just as precious to him and his little family as to the most distinguished and wealthy man of the land. What happened to him is liable to happen to any man of this grand old State of Kentucky who should feel compelled to do just as he did.

Candidate For Nomination as Auditor of Public Accounts Is Well Known Farmer and Live Stock Man.

H. H. COLYER, RICHMOND, KY.

AM A CANDIDATE for the responsible office of Auditor of Public Accounts of the State of Kentucky. Recognizing the important consideration given in choosing an official that will measure up to the ability and fitness for this high office, I submit the testimonials of those informed of my private life. To be Auditor of the great Commonwealth of Kentucky is not a new ambition—its honors are supreme and worth fighting for. I am not entering this contest upon the advice of a few local friends. A careful scrutiny by my friends from every section of the state of all the usual political conditions have determined that my representation in this primary is not likely to be a final second. I am a farmer and live stock dealer—I am interested in systemizing of agricultural interests for greater results and less hardships.

My political aspirations have been focused on this office for quite a while. Believing now that the election experience of the Democratic voters of Kentucky in the past has put them "wise" to the dangers and undemocratic system of swapping state offices, inspires me with the belief that the time is ripe and the voters are ready to give to Kentucky's administration what they want in the form of a square deal. I believe in fighting for justice and meriting the honors given. I believe that officials should be required to do as the toiling farmer—earn the emoluments of his office by the sweat of his brow. I believe that when every official of Kentucky has labored hard for an economical administration that the taxpayers will be greatly relieved. I am not for creating more offices, but for dispensing with every one that is superfluous. I began voting temperance, and will continue to do so as long as I have the sovereign right. I am for the election of every Democrat that is worthy enough to win his nomination, and for the defeat of every Republican, whether he won or stole his nomination, as in either case he would be wrong and never right.

If I am elected—which I believe from the public expression I will be—I promise now that the Commonwealth of Kentucky will never have a cause for suspicion of irregular management in my office; and that every employee will be of the highest type of fitness for the duties assigned. I expect to conduct my campaign on purely honorable Democratic principles—I am as much opposed to violating our election laws as I am of every other law enacted by a righteous tribunal. I hope to have the pleasure of meeting with every Democrat in Kentucky between now and the 7th day of next August. When the final results will have been declared I will cherish the memory of my supporters and will fight for Democratic supremacy.

Testimonial From Madison County Democratic Committee.

"In behalf of the Democrats of Madison county, and through many other representative Democrats from other sections of the state, I take pleasure in presenting H. H. Colyer to the Democrats of Kentucky, as a man capable and worthy for the high office of Auditor of Public Accounts, which he is now seeking. He is now and has always been loyal and aggressive for the success of Democratic supremacy. His morals and integrity are above reproach. If nominated, we predict that he will lead our Democratic ticket in November. Respectfully,

"W. A. LANGFORD,

"Chairman Democratic County Committee."

The "Kentucky Register" and "Climax-Madisonian" of Richmond, Ky., say, regarding Mr. Colyer:

"It is a pleasure to endorse a man of Mr. Colyer's worth for any office that he may seek. We have known him long and intimately, and can testify to the splendid quality of his Democracy, and to the value of his services to the party. Especially does it give us pleasure to say something of his value to the newspapers of this section. He has been one of the strongest friends the craft has ever had. He has been a consistent friend of the local publishers, has supported them morally and financially, and has always taken an active interest in the uplift and advancement of the journalistic profession."

Dawson Springs, Ky., March 10.—The administration forces made a clean sweep to-day in the convention of the Woodmen of the World, electing their ticket by big majorities and selecting Hopkinsville as against Louisville for the next meeting by an equally substantial vote. The officers chosen follow: Head counsel, Voris Gregory, Mayfield;

Brown, Princeton; head escort, W. P. Albritton, Fulton; head watchman, L. J. Iglehart, Dawson Springs; head sentry, John Adick, Hardin; head managers, George Broadfoot, H. H. Willis, E. A. Davis, C. T. McCormick and S. W. Sellers.

The Rev. W. P. Pritchett, of Calloway county, was selected by the opponents of the administration as their candidate for head consul, and a strong effort was made to gain a majority of the votes. When the count was made, Mr. Gregory had 192 to Mr. Pritchett's 102.

The victorious leaders, in order to promote harmony in the order, elected J. George Miller head clerk, though Mr. Miller had been one of the most active leaders of the opposition.

To-night the newly-elected officers were installed, and the convention closed with a number of harmony speeches.

J. D. JR. BLAMED IN HOUSE REPORT

On the Noted Mine Strike in Colorado.

HE IS ACCUSED OF WINNING

"By Starvation, Under False Banner of Liberty," in Coal Fields.

HE THREATENED EMPLOYEES BADLY

Washington, March 3.—In its report on the Colorado coal mine strike of a year ago, sub-committee of the House Committee on Mines severely criticised John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and declared that the State militia fought chiefly for the operators, though the latter were exculpated from the charges of peonage and restraint of trade.

This strike having been settled, no specific recommendations were made, but it was suggested that a new Federal law should be enacted to cover all such conditions that might arise in the future.

Referring to Mr. Rockefeller, the committee declares that he did nothing to improve the condition of the employees of the company in which he is stockholder and director.

"Mr. Rockefeller," says the report, "a large stockholder of the most powerful company in the State, has done a great deal for the uplift of people in other parts of the country and in foreign lands, spending millions of dollars in this work, yet he has not endeavored to improve the condition of the more than 6,000 employees in the company with which he is connected, and has not visited the State for more than ten years."

"Mr. Rockefeller is a long-distance director, not having attended a meeting of the stockholders or directors of the company in ten years. "It seems to have been his practice to select such men as he thought best for him and then look only to them for the management, without any personal knowledge of the conditions."

"It is true that he did spend a large part of his profits coming from the Colorado Industrial Company—a part of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company—in the bettering of conditions in other parts of the country; but what of that, when the money is gained in such a way and at such expense to the State and its people?"

"Mr. Rockefeller, before the committee in Washington, said he would not agree to arbitration, for the reason that he was fighting for a great principle, and would sacrifice all his property for the principle of every man to be free to work for whom he pleases and on such terms as best suits the worker."

"Mr. Rockefeller, speaking as a director of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, not having attended a meeting of the stockholders or directors in ten years, uttering this sentiment of liberty for the working people of his company and of whole country, should remember that for thirty years there has been the fiercest struggle among the workers in the mines of Colorado."

"He may win a strike by starvation under the false banner of liberty for the workman, but we do not believe he can maintain peace under such conditions as exist in that State."

"Mr. Rockefeller was not a good judge of conditions in Colorado and knew nothing about them. He was not willing to submit to a fair board of arbiters to settle this strike. He was obstinate, and the statement that he was fighting for liberty for the workman will not bear investigation. The strike could have been settled without recognition of the union had he desired to do so, and the employees could have worked for him whether members of the union or not."

"We believe he did not desire to arbitrate, and in that way end this strike, and one must conclude he would rather spend the money of the company for guns, pay of detectives and mine guards, and starve the strikers into submission."

"On the other hand, the miners were insistent on the recognition of their union. In the employment of force to win the strike they went beyond the rights of law-abiding citizens and committed acts of violence. They always, however, seemed willing to meet and endeavor to settle the dispute by arbitration, and it is believed that a settlement could have been made on a basis

Climax Wood Mortar

(Wood Fiber Plaster)

A practical, fireproof plastering material. Easily applied.

The Modern Wall Plaster

Ordinary plaster made of lime and sand is a constant source of expense for repairs. Every time a nail is driven a large, ugly hole is left through which the sand trickles, increasing in size with every vibration. There also is imminent danger of the plaster falling because of accidental flooding caused by leaky roof or broken waterpipes.

If you would practice true economy have your walls and ceilings plastered with Climax Wood Mortar.

Then your walls will be permanent—they will never need repairs. Your house will be warmer in winter and cooler in summer. You can decorate without fear of the decorations being damaged by pops, cracks or crumbles.

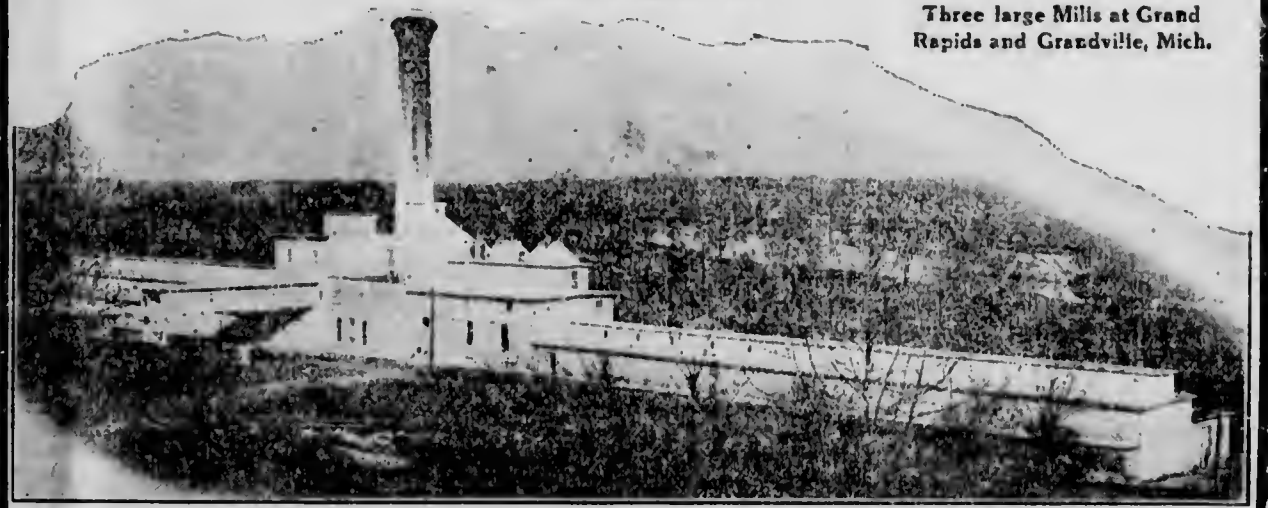

The base of Climax Wood Mortar is Pure Gypsum Rock (absolutely fireproof) mixed with finely fibred, tough wood and such other ingredients as are necessary to make it plastic, easy spreading and a reliable wall plaster. It is the result of more than fifty years experience in manufacturing wall plasters and we especially recommend it for ceilings, arches and domes where the plaster must be self-supporting. Climax wood mortar is very adhesive and its permanency may be relied upon. It resists fire, is very strong, light in weight, and the cost is about the same as for ordinary lime and sand plaster. If you want the best insist upon Climax Wood Mortar.

as mail matter of the second class.

In the Democratic gubernatorial derby it would be hard to play both ends against the middle unless a seventh candidate enters the race so as to make a middle man.

This is the time of year when many people suffer from colds in the head. So a fellow can give the season as the cause, in order to escape the old indictment that disease always attacks the weakest spot.

This—March 17—is St. Patrick's Day, "in the mornin'." The anniversary is usually honored by both Irish and Americans in a hearty and amicable way, to keep in memory the noted patron saint of the Emerald Isle.

Gen. Carranza doesn't seem to like Secretary of State Bryan, as he addresses his communications direct to the President. The "greaser" leader may soon see the day he will be compelled to "recognize" our doughty S. S.

According to tradition the groundhog didn't "make good" this year. His coming-out day was generally "cloudy," meaning that winter was broken, but we have had six weeks of about as good winter weather as one would care to experience.

Ex-President Taft said to a reporter a few days ago: "Tell the boys 1915 looks good to me." Wonder if any of the Roosevelt followers will help it look better to the leader of the crowd who tried (and nearly succeeded) in putting something over on them in 1912?

When the Democratic leaders of the State come to a realization of the fact that it is not particularly the interests of the candidates but of the voters that they should subserve, they will be getting the proper view of the matter. Many of the candidates will necessarily drop out after the primary, but the great mass of voters will still be here.

When you hear some calamity howler with the g. o. p. ring in his voice, proclaiming that the country is going to ruin and intimating that the present National Administration is responsible for it all, just ask him who was responsible for the "business depression" of 1897, when you couldn't check your own money out of the bank where it was deposited. Get him to tell who were the national bosses of affairs then, and call his attention to the fact that at that time we had no "war tax in time of peace," but were under the beneficent rule of a glorious "protective" tariff. Then ask him to please explain.

Much of the big volume of charity work that has been done in this country in the last few months has evidently been unappreciated, while of course the larger part was well placed and received. In the large cities where employment bureaus were opened and bread lines were established, the latter were largely patronized, while many men who registered for work, failed to report at the proper time or were unwilling to labor for the usually quite liberal stipend offered. In other words, they were willing to eat but not to work. Evidently many of the unemployed prefer that sort of thing. It is such demonstrations as these that make the efforts at charity a rather heartless undertaking.

A most commendable movement has been undertaken by the Louisville Anti-Tuberculosis Association. Early in April the Hazelwood Sanatorium at Louisville will be re-opened for the treatment of tuberculosis in all stages. There is no other tuberculosis sanatorium in Kentucky open to patients from the State at large. Its purpose is purely charitable, in that it will furnish treatment and board to consumptives at actual cost or less. Any deficit in operation will be covered by private benevolence. Its charter prohibits it from ever making any profit. Those interested should address the Anti-Tuberculosis Association at Louisville, Ky.

The Owensboro Messenger of Thursday says:

"The McLean county farmer who received $17 for his tobacco on the Owensboro market Tuesday, got that price only because he deserved it. Will not some Hancock or Ohio county man, who cultivated his crop with equal care and intelligence, now come in and beat this record?"

We have not been present at any of these sales, but we venture to say that there were several Ohio county crops of tobacco offered for sale there which were equally as good, as the $17 prize-taker. There is current belief that these few exceptional high biddings are in the nature of "bait" to get farmers to take their weed to Owensboro, announced under glaring headlines. It seems strange that with such a splendid outlook in the beginning—"small in quantity but fine in quality"—that the average farmer should realize so poorly on his tobacco crop.

Becoming uneasy under the proverbial strain of obscurity, the Lieutenant Governors of the country are preparing to attain some notoriety by a mass meeting of the "profession" which will be held at Rhea Springs, Texas, within the next few weeks. The meeting is being arranged by Lieut. Gov. O'Hara, of Illinois, and will be presided over by Vice President Marshall. An attendance of about forty Lieutenant Governors is expected.

Nothing Against James.

Former Prison Commissioner Eli Brown, who is deeply interested in Stanley's campaign, says that he has always been Senator James' friend, and expects to continue so, and that there is nothing in this campaign as mapped out for Stanley that contemplates the least thing antagonistic to James.—[Hopkinsville Kentuckian.]

THE MOONLIGHT SCHOOL CONTESTS ARE CLOSED

And Prizes Awarded To Contestants Who Engaged In Worthy Efforts.

The contests between teachers and trustees for the prizes offered by Kentucky's statesmen for the best moonlight school were very warm ones, many being in close competition for the prizes. The reports of teachers and letters from adults who had been taught to write, showed excellent results for the sessions of 1914.

Adair county captured the grand prize of $50 offered by Senator Ollie M. James for the best moonlight school in Kentucky. Mrs. W. L. Russell was the winner.

McCreary and Hardin counties won the $50 prize of Senator J. N. Camden to the trustee who best promoted the moonlight school work. W. P. Johnson, trustee at Barren Fork, McCreary county, and Rev. J. A. Fryrear, of Hardin county, tied for the prize and the Kentucky illiteracy Commission divided the prize between them. Mr. Johnson is an old soldier and fought in the battle of Gettysburg. He climbed a cliff each evening to be in the moonlight school and taught one of the classes. He is 70 years of age. Rev. Fryrear has served 28 years as school trustee, having the longest term of service of any trustee in the State. He is 70 years of age and a Baptist minister. He put forth a heroic effort to make the moonlight school in his district a success.

Congressman W. J. Field's prize of $25 for the best moonlight school in the Ninth District was won by Bnlt county. This was the most heated of all the contests, there being some excellent schools in Mason, Montgomery, Rowan and other counties, which ran the prize school in Bath a close race. Virgil Jones, a young teacher, won the honors for Bath.

Congressman J. Campbell Cantrell's prize of $25 for the best moonlight school in the Seventh District was won by Dudley Caudill, of Powell county.

Congressman John W. Langley's prize of $25 for the best moonlight school in the Tenth District was won by W. R. Thomas, of Floyd county. Attorney General James A. Garrett's prize of $10 for the best moonlight school in Adair county was awarded to Mrs. W. L. Russell. State Senator J. R. Zimmerman's prize of $10 for the best moonlight school in Bullitt county was awarded to Miss Mary Dawson.

The Bank of Clarkson's prize of $10 for the best moonlight school in Grayson county was won by A. K. Witten.

The Kentucky illiteracy Commission's prizes for the best moonlight school stories were won by the following: First prize, Miss Laura Smythe, Adair county; second prize, Miss Maude Bishop, McCreary county; third prize, Miss Lottie L. Richards, Rowan county.

Very Busy.

A district visitor who was making the final call in a tenement district, rising, said: "Well, my good woman, I must go now. Is there anything I can do for you?" "No, thank ye, mem," replied the submerged one. "Ye mustn't mind it if I don't return the call, will ye? I haven't any time to go slummin' meself."

BILLION DOLLARS FOR WAR SUPPLIES

Will Be Gained By U. S. Manufacturers.

DURING THE LAST 6 MONTHS

More Than $400,000,000 Has Been Bought By European Allies.

MUCH SECRECY IN PREMISES

One billion dollars is a conservative estimate of the value of the trade in arms, ammunition and war supplies between the allies of Europe and the manufacturers in the United States during the first year of the war. It has not been possible for American manufacturers to furnish war supplies to Germany because of the interruption of trade relations with that country.

During the past six months the allies have bought from the United States $400,000,000 worth of war supplies. Many of the manufacturers in the United States hold contracts with the British, French and Russian Governments which have at least nine months and in some instances two years longer to run.

Practically all war material destined for the use of the allies is now shipped by the American manufacturer or producer to Canada, where it is transhipped in British bottoms to England. Even war supplies for France and Russia are delivered in Canada, shipped to England and distributed from there.

Of the four hundred and odd million dollars already sent or contracted for, the following industries have secured the bulk:

Arms, ammunition and explosives	$107,000,000
Iron and steel	66,000,000
Textiles, hosiery, sweaters, &c.	32,000,000
Automobiles	22,000,000
Chemicals, medicines and hospital supplies	6,250,000
Leather, including shoes, harness, &c.	18,000,000
Miscellaneous, including horses, beef flour, sugar and provisions	161,000,000

Total to Feb. 1....$412,250,000

France, did not become a purchaser of cartridges and firearms until October, 1914, while Great Britain and Canada began to buy two months earlier—in August and September.

The allies, through agents and by direct correspondence, have bought up or contracted for practically the entire output of the factories of the United States manufacturing arms, ammunition and explosives.

In few instances are these supplies sold direct to the foreign Governments now at war. They are generally bought through a broker or agent and the greatest secrecy is maintained. Even the manufacturers who have received orders for supplies of this sort for the armies abroad are extremely reticent for fear there may be interruption to it. All such material is contraband.

Manufacturers of arms, ammunition and explosives will not admit that they have received orders of any kind. Their factories are guarded to such an extent that entrance is impossible. In all arms and ammunition factories even the workmen are compelled to have passes on which their photographs are affixed in order to get by the guards which not only watch the entrances to the factories, but practically surround them.

There are seventy-five factories in the United States manufacturing firearms and ammunition exclusively. These employ in normal times about 20,000 persons, but now, when every factory is working double and triple time, the number of employes has increased to about 50,000.

The manufacturers of firearms and ammunition do not make explosives. This is a separate industry and consists of about 103 establishments scattered through twenty-one different States. The capital employed in this industry is about $25,000,000 and the normal production is 250,000,000 pounds of explosives, but this output has been doubled because of the war orders. Additions and new factories have been established, and in many of the gun cotton and high explosive plants three shifts of men are being worked in order to fill orders.

Some of the orders for explosives, such as gun cotton, trinitrotoluol, &c., have been so large as to astound the trade. The General Electric Company has received a commission from the British Government to place orders for 40,000,000 pounds of trinitrotoluol, 20,000,000 pounds of gun cotton of British Admiralty standard and 5,000,000 pounds of picric acid.

As a result of the enormous demand prices have soared. Picric acid is one of the greatest needs of the allies just now, and the price has risen from 25 and 30 cents a pound to $2.50 per pound. The entire supply has been bought up, and the allies are now dependent upon the quantity which can be manufactured.

This acid is used in many of the explosives made abroad and in the United States. Gun cotton has more than doubled in price, and it is practically unobtainable, except as it is manufactured. Manufacturers and brokers who have "spot" gun cotton—that is, gun cotton that can be delivered within thirty days—are asking 78 cents a pound for it, while under two-year contracts it may be obtained at 65 and 67 cents per pound. It usually sells for about 20 to 25 cents per pound.

During the month of February the French Government endeavored to place an order for 24,000,000 pounds of gun cotton at 65 cents per pound. No cotton could be had for immediate delivery, and contracts were placed with a group of mills running over a period of two years. This combination can deliver only a comparatively small quantity a month, and agents were sent scouting about the country in an effort to gather up the balance.—[New York World.]

COURT APPROPRIATES $300 FOR DESTITUTE Of the Mining Region—Resolutions Call On the People To Help.

Messrs. W. A. Nave, Robert Caloway, J. W. Blackburn and E. M. Hardin, representing local union U. M. W. of A., Williams Mines, and Robert Owen, J. W. Reynolds and J. D. Walker, representing local union U. M. W. of A., Rander Mines, accompanied by Messrs. S. J. After hearing the petitions read and the statement of the committees and others, the Fiscal Court appropriated $300 to be used in helping the destitute. The members of the committee to distribute the food and articles of provision follow: Henry Rander, E. M. Hardin and Mitchell Smith.

On motion of Esq. Ed. Shown and second of Esq. R. C. Tichenor, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted and approved:

Whereas, Sixty or more heads of families, members of the United Mine Workers of America, located at Williams Mines and New Rander Mines, in Ohio county, have, by reason of the closing down of the mines at said points, and by reason of the further fact that, for many months said heads of families and their families dependent upon them, have been and are now destitute and unable to supply themselves, and their said families with provisions sufficient to sustain themselves and their said families, and

Whereas, Said heads of families and their said families are unable to procure any employment by means of which to earn a support for themselves, and by reason and on account of which, they have been compelled to appeal to the Fiscal Court of Ohio county for assistance, now, therefore be it

Resolved, That said Court, in extraordinary session sitting, appeal to the people living adjacent to said mines, as well as all others who will, to contribute food and any article of provision which they can, without material inconvenience to themselves, for the purpose of supplementing an appropriation this day made by the Fiscal Court, to relieve the suffering and distress of said, destitute families.

Any farmer or other business firm who is in need of labor, will please communicate with the members of the above committee.

SPLENDID ADDRESS OF MISS LIDA E. GARDNER

As had been previously announced, Miss Lida E. Gardner, Superintendent of Schools of Nicholas county, spoke at the court house here last Friday afternoon in the interest of trustee organization, the coming meeting of the K. E. A. and education in general. She spoke to a large and appreciative audience of trustees, teachers, citizens and about 130 students of Hartford School.

Miss Gardner is serving her second term as Superintendent of her county and has created a widespread and intelligent interest in the subject of popular education.

After her address the trustees present formed a county organization and elected Mr. E. G. Austin, chairman, and Mr. J. L. Brown, secretary, which organization it is hoped will be the means of arousing an increased interest among local trustees.

Miss Gardner is being sent to the different counties of the State and all her expenses are being paid by the generosity of the Hon. John B. McFerran, of Louisville, that grand old man who is doing so much to arouse an educational interest in Kentucky.

While here Miss Gardner was entertained at the home of Mrs. Tim Stevens and was also made to realize she was still in Kentucky by an automobile ride through our city, a visit to the school building, the new Methodist church, Rough river bridge and other places of interest, through the kindness of and accompanied by Mrs. S. O. Keown.

All in all it was a day long to be remembered in Hartford and the influence of Miss Gardner and her splendid address will long live in the minds, hearts and lives of all those whose fortune it was to meet her and be edified and enthused by the force of her splendid address.

Section Three Entertains.

If you wish to meet all your old friends, some you have not seen for years, attend the home-coming at the Methodist church Friday evening, March 19th. The ladies hope you will not fail to examine the exhibits from every section of our State. They will be instructive and entertaining.

The ladies will present a short program of Kentucky songs and readings. Admission, fifteen cents. Refreshments, ten cents.

The young couple left immediately for their home near Whitesville. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

PRESIDENT NEEDS MORAL SUPPORT

Of All Patriotic Citizens Of Country

IN PRESENT TRYING POSITION

He Should Be Made To Feel That No Partisanship Confronts Him.

IS TRULY A MAN OF BURDENS

The Chicago Herald says: In these troubled times, when every day shows more clearly the dangers that confront even the most sincere neutrality, the hearts of all Americans should go out in sympathy and support to that solitary man sitting in the White House at Washington who carries the welfare of one hundred million people so largely in his hand.

His is a staggering responsibility. It is the greatest that could be laid on the chief executive of any nation in time of peace. No American since Lincoln has borne such a burden—has been confronted with issues which are so big with fate for the land we love.

It is easy for those who do not share his burden or realize its tremendous weight on heart and mind to say what ought to be done under any and all circumstances. But his is the solemn duty not only of saying but also of acting; not only of acting but also of doing so with the knowledge that the welfare of his fellow citizens may hang upon his course.

Under such circumstances President Wilson needs the sympathy and support of every true American. He needs to know that political friends and foes alike are with him; that they know the burden he is carrying and believe that he will carry it—if with pain and labor to himself—with honor to the nation.

He should be made to feel that there is from one end of the country to another an abiding faith in his integrity and singleness of purpose and in his absolute determination to walk with circumspection but directly to the goal—stepping aside neither in the spirit of treachery nor subservience.

He should be made to feel that partisanship and personal feeling wholly cease to have a meaning for Americans when their President is confronted with what may quickly develop into an international crisis of grave significance; that the whole moral force and the whole heart and the whole mind of the nation are his to lean upon or to call upon for support.

And above all he should be made to feel that Americans understand how free from the taint of personal ambition and pride are his high-minded efforts to serve his country in these moments of its need for wise guidance; that it is of his country and not of himself he thinks first and last of all; that his one aim is to serve her and her alone.

Nothing that could be said or felt or done can avail to abate his high and solemn responsibility. But his way may and should be brightened by the knowledge that those for whom he stands and speaks and labors have confidence in his integrity, his ability, his singleness of purpose and his zeal.

A POPULAR CONVENTION MEETS IN LOUISVILLE

Of all the conventions held in the State none will attract more attention among educated and thinking people than the meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association, which this year meets in Louisville April 21st to 24th.

The secretary of the K. E. A. says that the program is the best ever. Every phase of school work is covered; departmental meetings are given great prominence in order that practical problems of teaching may get full discussion. Besides, speakers of prominence will address the meeting.

For this occasion the railroads will make a very low round-trip rate with liberal return limits; therefore, all superintendents, teachers and those interested in educational matters should make a special effort to attend the meeting of this year.

Information as to railroad fares, dates and limits, can be obtained from the nearest agent or from E. M. Womack, Assistant General Passenger Agent, L. H. & St. L., Louisville, Ky.

COUNTRY NEWSPAPERS—HOW MADE INTERESTING

In the March American Magazine David Grayson, writing his story entitled, "Hempfield," presents a character who comments as follows on the work of a country newspaper editor:

"My father always used to say that the little things of life are really the big things. I didn't use to think so; it used to hurt me to see him waste his life writing items about the visits of the Backuses—you know what visitors the Backuses are—and the big squashes raised by Jim Palmer, and the meetings of the Masons and the Odd Fellows; but I believe he was successful with 'The Star' because he packed it full of just such little personal news.

"We are more interested in people we know, than in people we don't know. We can't escape our own neighbors—and most of us don't want to."

GOVERNOR OF TEXAS TO HIS STATE LEGISLATURE

Texas elected a man by the name of Ferguson to be Governor. Texas got something worth while. At least a brave beginning points that way. For this virile specimen, who has learned that prosperity comes to the man who works for it, has been preaching a new doctrine to his people. Listen to some real truth as he gave it to the Texas Legislature:

"The government can do much to protect property, but only the individual can produce property."

"You, as a Legislature, can regulate many things, but you cannot produce wealth by statute."

"No law can be passed that will provide against wasteful extravagance, excessive expenditure or incorrect living."

"There is real danger of somebody going hog wild about higher education."

"When you try to do something with an abuse, you hit a sore spot on some politician's neck."

Governor Ferguson will do Texas a lot of good, but the place that really needs him is Washington.—Philadelphia Ledger.

WORDS OF WASHINGTON ON IMPORTANT MATTER

What He Said About the Relations Of Nations Towards Each Other.

(From Washington's Farewell Address.)

"So, likewise, a passionate attachment of one nation for another produces a variety of evils. Sympathy for the favorite nation, facilitating the illusion of an imaginary common interest in cases where no real common interest exists, and in feeling into one the enmities of the other, betrays the former into a participation in the quarrels and wars of the other without adequate inducement or justification. It leads also to concessions to the favorite nation of privileges denied to others, which is apt doubly to injure the nation making the concessions by unnecessary parting with what ought to have been retained, and by exciting jealousy, ill-will and a disposition to retaliate in the parties from whom equal privileges are withheld; and it gives to ambitious, corrupted or deluded citizens (who devote themselves to the favorite nation) facility to betray or sacrifice the interests of their own country without odium, sometimes even with popularity, gliding with the appearances of a virtuous sense of obligation, a commendable deference for public opinion or a laudable zeal for public good the base of foolish compliances of ambition, corruption or infatuation.

"As avenues to foreign influence in innumerable ways, such attachments are particularly alarming to the truly enlightened and independent patriot. How many opportunities do they afford to tamper with domestic factions, to practice the arts of seduction, to mislead public opinion, to influence or awe the public councils! Such an attachment of a small or weak toward a great and powerful nation dooms the former to be the satellite of the latter. Against the insidious wiles of foreign influence (I conjure you to believe me, fellow-citizens) the jealousy of a free people ought to be constantly awake, since history and experience prove that foreign influence is one of the most baneful foes of republican government. But that jealousy, to be useful, must be impartial, else it becomes the instrument of the very influence to be avoided, instead of a defense against it. Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests."

Severe Head Pains Caused By Catarrh Cured By Peruna

I Feel It a Duty to Mankind to Let All Know of My Cure. Peruna Did It.

Mr. W. H. Chaney, R. F. D. 2, Sutherland, Pittsylvania Co., Va., writes: "For the past twelve months I have been a sufferer from catarrh of the head. Since taking four bottles of your Peruna I feel like a different person altogether. The severe pains in my head have disappeared, and my entire system has been greatly strengthened."

"This is my first testimonial to the curative qualities of any patent medicine. I feel it a duty to mankind to let them know of Peruna. In my estimation it is the greatest medicine on earth for catarrh."

We have thousands of testimonials like Mr. Chaney's. Some of them were cured after years of suffering and disappointment in finding a remedy.

NOTHING BETTER FOR WEAK WOMEN

"I Never Spent Any Money That Did Me So Much Good as That I Spent for Vinol."

Bellefontaine, Ohio.—"I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol. My nerves were in a very bad condition, making me very weak, tired, and worn out and often drowsy headaches. I had tried cod liver oil, doctor's medicines, and other preparations without benefit.

"One day a friend asked me to try Vinol. I did and soon my appetite increased, I slept better and now I am strong, vigorous and well and can do my housework with pleasure."—Mrs. J. F. LAMBORN, Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Nervous, weak, tired, worn-out women should take Mrs. Lamborn's advice and try Vinol for there are literally thousands of men and women who were formerly run-down, weak and nervous, who owe their good health to Vinol.

It is the medicinal, tissue building elements of the cod's livers, aided by the blood making, strengthening influence of tonic iron, contained in Vinol, which makes it so efficient in all such cases.

MASSACRE OF "INFIDELS" IS NOW MUCH FEARED

In Palestine—Christians and Jews Fear the Followers Of Islam.

New York, March 13.—From the many thousands of refugees, who fled from Jerusalem during the last few months and were taken from Jaffa to Alexandria by the United States cruiser Tennessee and other relief ships chartered by the American Ambassador to Turkey, there reached New York to-day aboard the steamship Carpathia five missionaries, who expressed keen apprehension for the fate of Christians and Jews in Turkey should the allied fleets force the Dardanelles.

"There exists in Jerusalem a very strong feeling against Jews," said the spokesman of the missionaries, January 29 the Anglo-Palestine Bank, of Jerusalem, was raided by a mob of Turks. The situation was then regarded as being so critical that Ambassador Morgenthau sent telegraphic instructions to the commander of the Tennessee, then en route from Alexandria to Jaffa, requesting him to hurry to Jaffa to be ready for an emergency.

"If the allied fleets force the Dardanelles there probably will be a massacre of Christians and Jews at Jerusalem and its neighboring small villages. The clamor for 'infidel' blood will be too strong for the authorities."

Commander C. Yannopoulos, of the Greek navy, another passenger, said he was going to Bethlehem, Penn., to purchase new and large guns and ammunition for the two battleships sold by the United States in Greece last year.

SULPHUR SPRINGS.

March 15.—Many farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather and are turning the soil in a hurry. Some are sowing oats, others are sowing grass seed and some plant bolls. If they don't get organized they stand a chance to do another year's work for nothing. Wheat is looking bad. The hard freezes have heaved it out badly.

A man by name of Sam Caswell, from Texas, visiting relatives in this section, lost his pocketbook containing $85 near Sunnydale one day last week. On going back over the road he found the pocketbook but the money was gone and his chances for recovering his cash seem to be slim. Quite a loss for a man so far from home. What a pity some people won't be honest.

Cora E. Ballard, wife of J. A. Ballard, who has been ill since last fall, is improving some and her friends hope she will soon be out.

DUNDEE.

If you will inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant and safe to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children. For sale by all dealers.

This morning at three o'clock Mrs. Katherine Davis died of pneumonia and heart trouble. She was sick but a short time and the Drs. pronounced her case hopeless from the time she was stricken. She is survived by one son, Mr. Travis. "Aunt Kate," as she was called, was 65 years old, a member of the Baptist church and a great church worker. She was always in her pew at church services. She was the only sister of the late M. N. Shultz.

GREAT CROWDS HEAR COOPER

Our Faulty Method of Living
Produces Ill Health,
He Says.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—L. T. Cooper, the man who created such a favorable impression in the big Eastern cities with his health theories and medicine, has attracted immense gatherings in Lexington, where the famous philanthropist has delivered a series of lectures in connection with his introduction of Tanlac, the medicine that is producing such remarkable results in Central Kentucky.

Probably ten or fifteen thousand have heard Cooper talk during the past few weeks. Possessed of an unusual amount of personal magnetism, Cooper seems to draw his crowds from all walks of life, and from everywhere in the Blue Grass section.

During the course of a recent lecture he said:

"Probably the most prevalent and distressing condition known to us Americans is chronic catarrh of the mucous membranes. Catarrh of the stomach is the most frequent cause of dyspepsia, and catarrhal conditions in the nose and throat lead to inevitable deafness. Show me a man whose hearing is affected and I will show you a man who is suffering from catarrh."

"Frequently," continued the great student, "the lungs become diseased by the extension of catarrhal inflammation by way of the bronchial tubes to the lung substance."

"The mental and physical state of chronic catarrh sufferers is, indeed, very unfortunate, and it is really surprising to know what an immense number of people are suffering from this almost universal malady when they think something else is wrong with them."

Cooper then enumerated the numerous symptoms of catarrh, such as an offensive breath, constant sniffing, discharges from the nose, droppings in the throat, frequent sneezing, watery eyes, full head, headaches, depression of spirits, nervousness, unsound digestion, lost appetite, and susceptibility to coughs and colds.

Cooper then told how the faulty methods of living produce rheumatism and kidney complaints. How the body, when the organs falter or fall, fills up with poisons generated by one's own system.

He explained how Tanlac, the miraculous medicine, would combat these conditions, as it had done among the thousands of sufferers in the East, as well as many hundreds in Lexington, who had always used the preparation, and found Tanlac an unfailing source of benefit. "Tanlac," he said, "builds up the constitution weakened by disease and mental and physical overwork, quickens convalescence, and is a sound source of comfort to the aged and infirm."

Tanlac is sold in Hartford by Ohio County Drug Co., by Z. Wilbur Mitchell, Beaver Dam, Ky.—(Advertisement.)
